

DFSA (Dubai Financial Services Authority) grants IronFX Global MENA Limited the licence to operate as an Authorised Firm.

19 January 2015, Limassol Cyprus, IronFX Global MENA Limited, is announcing that it has been granted the licence to operate as an Authorised Firm by DFSA (Dubai Financial Services Authority).

The DFSA is known for its exceptionally strict supervisory regime, and insists upon the highest levels of compliance from its members. It also has one of the most stringent conditions of entry compared with other regulators globally.

With this licence, IronFX consents to being regulated by the DFSA in accordance with legislation governing the activities and conduct of financial and market participants in the Dubai International Financial Centre (DIFC). This new authorization also obliges IronFX Global to operate under the principles of fairness, transparency and efficiency, as well as to protect direct and indirect users of financial services in the DIFC. The offices of IronFX Global MENA are located at Emirates Financial Towers, South Tower, Office 301.

Chairman & CEO of IronFX Global, Markos Kashiouris commented: “We are truly delighted with the decision of the DFSA to grant us with this licence to operate in Dubai. This additional licence symbolizes a new phase in the global growth of IronFX, as we seek to enhance our reputation as a solid firm of integrity and reliability, in the Middle East. We welcome stricter supervision from our global regulatory authorities so that our valued clients are provided with the best and safest trading experience that the forex industry has to offer.”
